The image displays a sophisticated marble pattern. The background is a solid, dark charcoal grey. Overlaid on this are several veins of varying widths and colors. The most prominent veins are a rich, metallic gold, which appear slightly raised or have a glossy finish. Interspersed among these are thinner, more delicate veins of a bright, shimmering white. The veins intersect at various angles, creating a complex, organic geometric pattern characteristic of natural stone. The overall effect is one of luxury and modern elegance.
